Proclamation Issued Here

"Side by side with other institutions of good in our community the YWCA stands, a dynamic contributor and worker for a better way of life for all."

Mayor Mervin M. Schwab this week issued the above statement in commemoration of National YWCA week, April 19 to 25. The Mayor went on to say that "for 99 years this great organization has been a force for good in the world. Its record is a proud one for it has pioneered in promoting the welfare of the young women of our nation."

Theme for National YWCA week is: "They go to church; they go to school; they go to work; they go to the YWCA."

Sunday will be observed YWCA Sunday in all local churches. Mrs. Charlotte Lukes, local YWCA director announced.

Teach Given Manager Post

Harold R. Teach, of 5341 Sharynne Lane has been named as assistant secretary of Title Insurance and Trust Company. President W. Herbert Allen announced this week.

Appointment by the firm's board of directors makes Teach, a 28 year employee, an officer in America's largest title company and Southern California's oldest trust company. He is assistant manager of the escrow department.

Announce Service At First Christian Church

Unwavering obedience to the eternal demands of Christ is the way to individual salvation and progress, asserts the lesson sermon at the Sunday services at the First Church of Christ, Scientist, 218th street at Manuel avenue, next Sunday, it was announced today.

Sergeant Almeida On Korean Duty

Army Sergeant First Class Carlos Almeida, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roman Almeida, 5202 W. 182nd, was recently transferred to the 7th Infantry division in Korea.

Almeida, who arrived on the peninsula last April, had been serving as a squad leader with

Hours Of Church Service Disclosed

Robert A. Wells, pastor of the Narbonne Avenue Southern Baptist Church, 248th street and Narbonne avenue, Lomita, announced today that church services this coming Sunday will be held according to Pacific Standard Time, rather than Daylight Saving Time.

Sunday school will meet at 9:45, to be followed at 11 a.m. by regular worship service, the pastor said. He pointed out, however, that both the Training Union meeting at 6:30 p.m. and the evening worship service at 7:30 p.m. will be scheduled according to Daylight Saving Time.

The pastor will bring the message at both morning and evening services.

Rummage Sale At Church Guild Hall

Clothes, toys, household appliances, and a wide variety of other items will be displayed today and tomorrow when the Ladies' Guild of Central Evangelical United Brethren Church holds a rummage sale in guild hall, it was announced by Mrs. Grace Harper. The sale will begin at 9 a.m. and close at 5 p.m. both days. Guild Hall is located at the corner of Marcelina and Arlington avenue.

Mrs. Merle Johnston and Mrs. Maude Lock are co-chairmen of the event. Mrs. Howard McDonald is president of the group.

P-TA Announces New Officers

New officers of the 232nd Place school were elected at the association meeting on March 11. Heading the new executive board is Mrs. Fred Bassett, president.

Others elected are: Mrs. Kenneth Madison, first vice-president; Roy Striegel, second vice-president; Mrs. J. Arthur Clark, secretary; Mrs. Donald O'Neill, treasurer; Mrs. Darryl Martinson, auditor; and Mrs. Fred Piper, historian.

Mrs. Eloene LaSetra, of Wilmington, Jr. High School, spoke to the group on "Friendship Begins at Home."

the 45th Infantry division, which is being returned to the United States. He will finish his Korean tour of duty with the 7th division, now training to maintain combat efficiency.
